

3 Singapore is not as sunny as Australia. ✓

Start again

4 It is better to live in a sunny city than a rainy city. ✓

Start again

5 Too much sun can be more dangerous than too much snow. ✓

Start again

6 A tornado is worse than a storm. ✓

Start again

7 In Antarctica, May is as cold as August. ✓

Start again

Correct the mistakes in the sentences. There is one mistake in each sentence.

1 The temperature in Dubai is higher than in London. ✓

Start again

2 The hottest temperatures in the world are usually in deserts. ✓

Start again

3 Singapore is not as sunny as Australia. ✓

Start again

4 It is better to live in a sunny city than a rainy city. ✓

Start again

5 Too much sun can be more dangerous than too much snow. ✓

Start again

Complete the article with the correct form of the word in brackets. Use one word only in each gap.

Extreme weather

Rain

Many people think that it rains a lot in the UK. However, it is not the (wet) place in Europe. Crkvica, in Bosnia-Herzegovina is (wet), with around 464cm of rain every year. But the (rain) place in the world is in Asia. Mawsynram, in India, is high in the mountains and gets around 1,187 cm per year.

Sun

Australia is one of the (sunny) places in the world. This country gets around 3,500 hours of sun each year. The UAE is (sunny).

Australia is one of the ✓ (sunny) places in the world. This country gets around 3,569 hours of sun every year. The UAE is ✓ (sunny) with about 3,609 hours. However, the place with the ✓ (bright) weather is Arizona, in the US, with more than 4,000 hours.

Wind

The ✓ (high) wind speed recorded was in the US. The wind reached 371 km per hour. However, a place where it is windy every day is also the ✓ (cold) and ✓ (dark) place on Earth. In Antarctica, wind speeds are often around 320 km per hour. Perhaps this is the ✓ (bad) place in the world to live.

weather is Arizona, in the US, with more than 4,000 hours.

Wind

The  (high) wind speed recorded was in the US. The wind reached 371 km per hour. However, a place where it is windy every day is also the (cold) and  (dark) place on Earth. In Antarctica, wind speeds are often around 320 km per hour. Perhaps this is the (bad) place in the world to live.

4 In this month,  temperatures are around -15°C .

5 There are very  temperatures between May and October.

6 Then, the temperature quickly .

7 Between December and January, the temperature  around 0°C .

8 This is the  temperature in Antarctica.

6 Then, the temperature quickly

7 Between December and January, the temperature around 0° C.

8 This is the  temperature in Antarctica.

9 After February, the temperatures every month until May.

Complete the table with the correct comparative and superlative adjective.

Adjective	Comparative	Superlative
warm	warmer ✓	the warmest ✓
high	higher ✓	the highest ✓
hot	hotter ✓	the hottest ✓
wet	wetter ✓	the wettest ✓
dry	drier ✓	the driest ✓
windy	windier ✓	the windiest ✓
difficult	more difficult ✓	the most difficult ✓
beautiful	more beautiful ✓	the most beautiful ✓
bad	worse ✓	the worst ✓
good	better ✓	the best ✓

Complete the table with the correct comparative and superlative adjective.

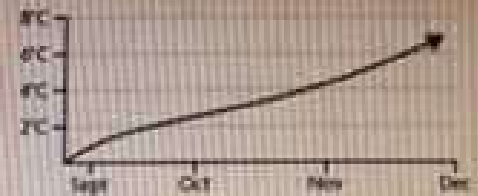

Adjective	Comparative	Superlative
warm	warmer ✓	the warmest ✓
high	higher ✓	the highest ✓
hot	hotter ✓	the hottest ✓
wet	wetter ✓	the wettest ✓
dry	drier ✓	the driest ✓
windy	windier ✓	the windiest ✓
difficult	more difficult ✓	the most difficult ✓
beautiful	more beautiful ✓	the most beautiful ✓
bad	worse ✓	the worst ✓
good	better ✓	the best ✓

Correct the mistakes in the sentences. There is one mistake in each sentence.

1 The graph shows an increase in temperature.

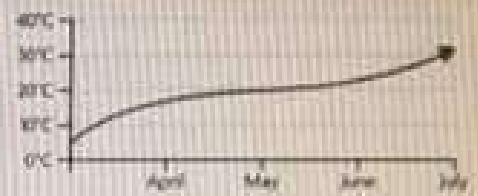

Start again

2 The temperature rises to 30° C.

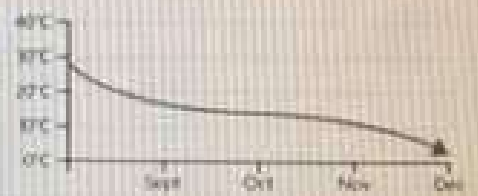

Start again

3 In December, the temperature drops to nearly 0° C.

Start again

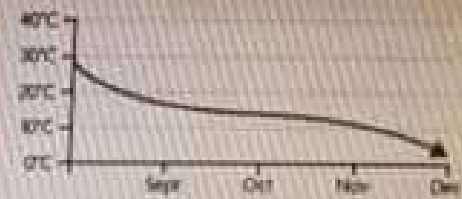

4 In April, the temperature reaches 15° C.

3 In December, the temperature drops to nearly 0° C.

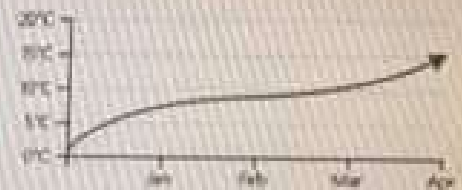

Start again

4 In April, the temperature reaches 15° C.

Start again

5 The graph shows a decrease in temperature.

Start again

1 This graph ☒ the temperature in Antarctica.

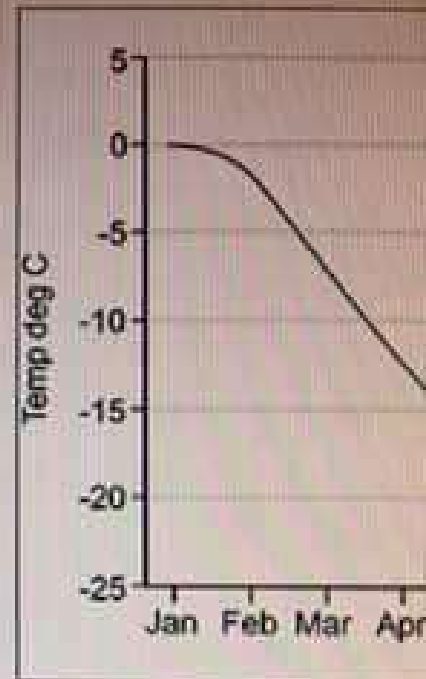

2 ☒ is the warmest month.

3 ☒ is the coldest.

4 In this month, ☒ temperatures are around -15°C .

5 There are very ☒ temperatures between May and October.

6 Then, the temperature quickly ☒.

Death Valley, in California, US is the hottest place on Earth. It is the lowest place in North America, at 86 metres below sea level, and it is very dry. There is almost no rainfall here.

There are very high temperatures in Death Valley in the summer, between May and October. In this season, the hottest temperatures can be around 57° C.

Between January and December, the minimum temperature is around 4° C

The coldest and the hottest places on Earth

Antarctica is the coldest place on Earth. The maximum ✓ temperature is only around 0°C , and the coldest temperatures can be around -55°C . The lowest ✓ temperatures are always between May and October. This is the Antarctic winter, and it is always very dark.

Antarctica is also a very dry place. It almost never snows here. This means that Antarctica is actually a desert ✓

Read the clues and then complete the crossword puzzle.

Across

3 The article is about nature and the environment in Singapore. ✓

- ☒ True
☐ False

4 The word 'Supertrees' is unusual. ✓

- ☒ True
☐ False

5 The article is a story about a tourist's visit to Singapore. ✓

- ☐ True
☒ False

6 'Supertrees' are smaller than normal trees. ✓

- ☐ True
☒ False

night when the

D _____

The Supertrees

the environment

slowly gives wa

temperature fa

don't feel so ho

Read the text. Choose a heading for each paragraph.

		A	B	C	D	E	F
An unusual type of tree	✓	☐	☐	☒	☐	☐	☐
A popular place to go	✓	☐	☒	☐	☐	☐	☐
A problem with the Supertrees	✓	☐	☐	☐	☐	☒	☐
Some facts about Singapore	✓	☒	☐	☐	☐	☐	☐
Thinking about the future	✓	☐	☐	☐	☐	☐	☒
How the Supertrees help	✓	☐	☐	☐	☒	☐	☐ slowly gives water to temperature fall in the don't feel so hot. The catch light from the sun electricity is used ac

E _____

Of course, the Supertree park cost 1 billion Singapore dollars complete). Many people like the nature, on real trees.

F _____

However, most people like cities are getting bigger

Put the correct answer under each question.

Why is Singapore special?

It is one of the most crowded countries in the world.

What does 'super' mean in the word 'Supertree'?

It is bigger than usual.

How does a Supertree help the environment?

It does not use energy, it creates energy.

Why do some people disagree with building the Supertrees?

The money can be used for something else.

Why is it important to think of new ideas to help our environment?

Our cities are becoming more crowded.

Some facts about

Singapore is a small country. The temperature is always high. Every year is more crowded and there are more people.

A popular place to

However, there is only one city centre, and it is very crowded. The name is Gardens by the Bay and includes thousands of trees from all over the world.

An unusual type of

However, 18 of the trees are dead.

Source: BBC News, 2018

1 Singapore is a large country with a small population. ✓

- ☐ True
☒ False

2 The climate is always hot in Singapore. ✓

- ☒ True
☐ False

3 The article is about nature and the environment in Singapore. ✓

- ☒ True
☐ False

4 The word 'Supertrees' is unusual. ✓

- ☒ True

the world.

C _____

However,

made from each one are larger

they are c

However,

night when

D _____

The Super

the environ slowly gives temperature

(don't feel se